Section 6. Dealer Agreements and Member Dealer Agreements

The Department cannot license a redemption center without at least one dealer agreement or member dealer agreement. Model agreements can be found on the Department's website.

- Dealer agreements: A “dealer” is a retailer (including restaurants, bars, cafeterias, etc.) that sells beverages in beverage containers. A dealer agreement is an agreement in which the owner of the dealer affirms that, given the location and hours of operation, the redemption center will provide a convenient redemption option for the dealer’s customers.
- Member dealer agreement: A member dealer agreement is an agreement in which a redemption center fulfills the redemption responsibilities of a dealer with at least 5,000 sq. ft. of retail space and that is obligated to provide for redemption in accordance with 38 M.R.S. 3106(1).

Section 7. Required Signatures

SIGNATURE OF TRANSFEREE

I certify the redemption center will accept and manage all beverage containers with labels that are registered in accordance with 38 M.R.S. § 3105.

I understand that I am responsible for ensuring business operations in accordance with all applicable laws and rules, including Manufacturers, Distributors, and Dealers of Beverage Containers 38 M.R.S. §§ 3101-3119 and Responsibilities under the Returnable Beverage Container Law 06-096 CMR ch. 426.

I certify under penalty of law that I have personally examined the information submitted in this document and all attachments thereto and that, based on my inquiry of those individuals immediately responsible for obtaining the information, I believe the information is true, accurate, and complete. I, the property owner or lessee, authorize the Department of Environmental Protection (Department) to enter the property that is the subject of this application, at reasonable hours, including buildings, structures or conveyances on the property, to determine the accuracy of any information provided herein. I am aware there are significant penalties for submitting false information, including the possibility of fine and imprisonment.
